Marco Andretti on the Honda 200 at Mid-Ohio:

"At the Mid-Ohio open test a few weeks ago, the NYSE car was very fast and that made me really happy. I really like the course because it's a physically challenging track. It's an important race for Honda because it's so close to many of the Honda plants in Ohio and I'd like nothing more than to win the first IndyCar Series race at Mid-Ohio."

Marco Andretti Facts

- This is the first IndyCar Series race at Mid-Ohio.
- Andretti finished fifth at Nashville, the most recent IndyCar Series race.
- The finish was Andretti's third top-five result in the last four races.
- He collected his best finish of the 2007 season at Iowa Speedway when he finished second.
- Andretti is 11th in the IndyCar Series championship and is only 13 points out of ninth place.
- Over the last four IndyCar Series events, Andretti has made up six positions in the championship.
- Andretti finished second at the 2006 Indianapolis 500® in what was the second-closest finish in the history of the event. He joined both his father and grandfather in earning the Indianapolis 500 Rookie of the Year honor.
- Andretti became the youngest driver (19 years, five months, 14 days) to win a major open-wheel race when he took the checkered flag at Infineon Raceway on August 27, 2006.
- He finished seventh in the 2006 IndyCar Series driver championship and collected the IndyCar Series Bombardier Rookie of the Year award.
- He made six starts in the Indy Pro Series in 2005, collecting three victories (St. Petersburg, Indianapolis road course and Infineon Raceway), five top fives and three pole positions.

Kyle Moyer, Race Strategist,

#26 NYSE Dallara/Honda/Firestone, on the Honda 200 at Mid-Ohio:

"We've had two top-five finishes in a row and that really seems to have gotten us going again. The NYSE team had a good test at Mid-Ohio and I think we're in a situation now where we're finishing well, so now we've got to win."
